「空を見る家」

小学生のころから「女の絵描きさん」になりたいと思っていました。しかし女学生になったころには、第二次世界大戦の真っ最中で、工場勤員、戦災、疎開先での戦災という日々を過ごしました。なんとしても勉強したいと思い、岡山の家から受験のために上京し、日本女子大学に入学、「生活と芸術を一体として考える」という趣旨に希望を持って、住居学専攻1回生として卒業を遂げました。

戦後不況で設計事務所の採用はなく、大学の研究生としてわずかながら設計に参加することができましたが、出版社に誘われ、やがて結婚しました。

結婚後は、大家族の中での「嫁」の役割を担いながら深夜まで働き、夫の両眼の看護のために自宅で事務所を開設、住宅を中心に幼稚園や病院の設計に打ち込み、ここで後輩たちも育てることができました。

"a scholarly and reliable record of women's contributions to the profession"

Donna Dunay, FAIA, is an ACSA Distinguished Professor and Professor Emerita of Architecture at Virginia Tech.

Her work explores and illuminates women's contributions to architecture and a cultural and civic understanding of education and practice through design research. She recently served on the AIA Strategic Council, and she also served on the Canberra Accord team to review the National Board of Architectural Accreditation of China. Chair of numerous NAAB accrediting teams, her involvement with architectural education from a national and international perspective has continued throughout her career. One of her many achievements as IAWA chair is the organization of the 18th Congress of the International Union of Femmes Architectes in celebration of the 30th Anniversary of the IAWA in 2015. Her book, Town Architecture: Understanding a Virginia Town and the Center for Civic Activity National Design Competition along with articles, exhibitions, and presentations at national and international events have contributed to multiple communities.

FAIA, Fellow of the American Institute of Architects

ACSA, Association of Collegiate Schools of Architecture
